

Title: Learning outcomes for participants.

- Promotion of inclusion and diversity through the active participation of all learners.
- Development of digital skills through the use of digital monitoring and collaboration tools.
- Improvement of communication and collaboration, particularly in intercultural environments.
- Support for daily living and social interaction of disabled (especially on autism spectrum), with adapted educational approaches to social learning, communication skills, and self-regulation.
- Support for the professional integration of disabled (especially on autism spectrum), through specialized educational services oriented towards the vocational development of learners.
- Educational software for disabled (especially on autism spectrum).
- Enhancement of the curriculum through the integration of identified good practices.
- Specialized support for individuals on the autism spectrum, with emphasis on intervention and inclusion strategies.